CORRECTION

Information was inaccurate

A Sept. 19 story to promote a fundraising event for a Markham teen incorrectly stated that Joshua Franey was stricken with a brain injury on June 29. Franey fell ill on July 29. As well, the 15-year-old is now a patient at the Bloorview Rehabilitation Hospital. The Markham Economist & Sun regrets the errors.

York police seek suspect in car theft

York Regional Police are seeking this man in connection with the theft of a $75,000 Corvette from a Markham car dealership in August.

Det.-Const. Terry Jordan said the car was stolen from East Side Chev Olds, Woodbine Avenue just south of Hwy. 7, about 6:45 a.m. on Aug. 22.

Cleaning staff had left a side door open, Jordan said. The man walked right into the dealership, grabbed labeled keys off a hanging rack, attached stolen Quebec plates and drove away in the black 2001 Corvette.

The car was eventually found abandoned on Westmount Avenue in Toronto, Sept. 9.

This picture is the only connection police have to the suspect.

The man looks stocky, with light brown hair, close cropped at the sides.

If you recognize him or were in the area at the time of the theft, call Jordan at 881-1221, ext. 7541.
