

Election letter policy strives to be fair, impartial

During the course of any municipal election campaign, The Economist & Sun/Tribune receives many letters to the editor discussing candidates and issues.

We have established a policy for publishing election letters.

First, letter-writers should stick to the issues, highlighting matters of importance and making comment on important situations, rather than focusing on candidates.

Cheerleading letters, that is, letters praising specific candidates that don't address any issues of importance, will not be published.

Personal attacks, that is, letters attacking specific candidates without addressing any issues of importance, will not be published.

If we believe we are witnessing a letter-writing campaign either in favour of or in opposition to a particular candidate, we will not run the letters.

If you wish to make comment on an issue, please write to us. We believe we should have an open exchange about matters that affect the daily lives of our readers.

And if we choose not to publish your letter and you'd like to talk about that decision, please contact us. We'd be happy to discuss it with you.

Two withdraw from election

Two late withdrawals has reduced the number of candidates vying for positions in the upcoming municipal election.

Tom Beck dropped out of the Markham mayor's race and Steve Carr is no longer a candidate in ward 5. Both withdrawals happened Oct. 16.

Markhaven holds anniversary gala

Wanted: People who have been connected with Markhaven retirement residence over the past 40 years.

Markhaven will be celebrating its 40th anniversary on Nov. 2 with a joint gala and fundraising evening at the Crystal Fountain Banquet Hall.

Guests at the anniversary will include Mayor Don Cousens, Ontario Environment Minister Dan Newman and several local councillors and as many former staff members and others connected with Markhaven as can be contacted.

"We've sent a lot of letters out, but we don't want to miss anyone," said Anna Jennings, Markhaven administrator.

Jennings said Markhaven is in the process of raising $3.5 million to tear down the existing building and erect a new one. The residence has currently raised $2.2 million.

Tickets for the anniversary evening still are available at Markhaven or the Markhaven Foundation Office at 132 Robinson St. For more information, call 905-294-2233 or 905-472-4779.

Fill out our candidate questionnaire and be part of a special election section

With a municipal election approaching, the Economist & Sun/Tribune wants to hear from all the candidates.

The Economist & Sun/Stouffville Tribune will be publishing a comprehensive election section Oct. 26, featuring profiles of all the candidates who respond to the attached questionnaire by 5 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 19.

Please fill out the questionnaire and return it to the Economist & Sun/Tribune offices, 9 Heritage Rd., Markham, or 34 Civic Dr., Stouffville, with a current photograph attached.

The questionnaire can also be faxed to (905) 294-1538, but we'll still need you to drop off your photo.

Any questions may be directed to Jim Mason, editor of the Economist & Sun/Stouffville

Tribune, by calling 294-2200 or 640-2612.
