

TOWN OF WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE "COUNTRY CLOSE TO THE CITY"

COMMUNITY & LEISURE SERVICES

Winter programs have started. We are still accepting registrations for those programs that have space available. Children's dance, basketball, volleyball, drama, Yoga, and adult art classes still have space. Call now for registration information, 640-1910 ext. 288.

Ballroom Dance Space still available.

Enjoy a night out either with your partner or on your own and get a work out at the same time. This program offers an introduction to a variety of dances and a fun way to spend your evening.

National Coaching Certification Program

Level 1 Theory

This is the course you need to be on your way to being a coach for most major sports. Covered is theory and practical examples on injuries, skill development, motor learning and basic physiology. Offered January 20 and 21 at the Ballantrae Fire Hall.

Reflexology - February 14th

Come with a partner or come on your own to learn how to use the pressure points on your feet to improve overall circulation and bring on total body relaxation. These proven techniques will be shared with participants by a certified reflexologist. We will supply the music, scents, creams and mats and you can bring the pillow. A great way to spend your Valentines Day!

First Aid

Don't wait for the summer rush. Get certified now and be ready for your summer job or just take the course so you will know what to do in an emergency situation. First Aid courses are offered at the Ballantrae Fire Hall. Call 640-1910 ext. 286 for more information.

Pleasure Craft Operator Card

If you were born after April 1, 1983, you will need to be certified by this summer if you are planning to drive a boat with a motor. Everyone will eventually need this certification so why not just register the whole family. We are offering the Lifesaving Society BOAT course which covers all the information to prepare you for the test. Course fee, $60, includes the course, study manual and exam fees. Successful candidates will be issued their operators' card. Ballantrae Fire Hall, February 5 & 7.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING

The Corporation of the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville invites an Expression of Interest from interested proponents regarding the future use of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library Building located at 6240 Main Street, Stouffville. The 7,700 sq. ft. single storey building has parking for approximately 50 vehicles. Expected date of vacancy is Summer 2001. It is the intention of the Town that the successful proponent will enter into a Lease Agreement for the long-term use of the facility.

Your Expression of Interest should contain a complete organization/company profile and a full description of the intended use of the facility; plus any other pertinent information that will allow the Selection Committee to carefully assess your submission.

Submissions, in a sealed envelope and clearly identified as to contents will be received by the undersigned until 3:00 pm February 15, 2001.

The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville wishes to thank all who submit an Expression of Interest, but only interested proponents whose submissions are more closely aligned with the Town's expectations will be provided with further information and invited to submit a formal proposal and presentation to the Selection Committee. The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville reserves the right to accept any submission, or reject any or all submissions.

Any inquiries or questions regarding this Expression of Interest should be directed to Mr. Eric Lismanis, Business Development Manager (905) 640-1910 Ext. 256.

Mrs. Michele Kennedy
Municipal Clerk

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Community and Leisure Services Department is now accepting applications for summer employment with the department. If you want to work in the camp, at the pool or in the parks, get in your resume and application now. Call 640-1910 ext. 288 for details on employment opportunities.

If you want to work at the new pool and don't have your certification, there is still time to do so. Call 640-1910 ext. 288 for more information on how you can become a lifeguard/instructor or assistant. There will also be opportunities to work at the reception desk at the new facility. Call for details.
