Bowes wants to take over schools

in Toronto, said Ward 1 Councillor Pliakes. As well, Ward 2 Councillor Mark Carroll is not convinced smaller is better. "If we make our wards bigger, we won't know what's going on in the corners of our wards and we'll chance losing the quality of life in Whitchurch-Stouffville."

New Ward 5 Councillor Harry Bowes

isn't overly concerned about the present size of the council.

But, Bowes, a former school trustee, and York Region public board chairperson would like the governing of schools taken over by municipal councils.

"They have no power. They're nothing but eunuchs. Why not get rid of them?" said Bowes. "I'm always in favour of downsizing. Let's take over the school board."

CORRECTION

A story about the French immersion program in York Region public schools contained an error in the numbers.

There are approximately 5,000 students, Grade 1 to OAC, enrolled in the program across the region.

About 675 new students enter French immersion in Grade 1 every year.

The Tribune regrets the error.
