Sergio ready for Angus Glen; Weir set to take on El-Nino

Two more PGA players to be named shortly for July's Skins Game

BY MIKE HAYAKAWA
Sports Editor

El-Nino will be coming to neighbouring Markham this spring. No, there won't be a change in the weather pattern.

But rather, one of the top European touring professionals on the PGA circuit will be taking to the Angus Glen Golf Club links.

Sergio Garcia, known on the PGA circuit as El-Nino, will take part in the Telus Skins Game, presented by Ericsson on July 23 and 24.

A native of Borriol, Spain who gained notoriety last year after defeating Tiger Woods last year in the Battle of Bighorn, the 21-year-old Garcia will be joined by Canadian golfing great Mike Weir as part of the four-member playing field that will play for prize money valued at $360,000 Canadian.

The other two touring PGA competitors that are expected to participate in the two-day event will be announced within the next two to three weeks, said Michael Merrall, senior vice-president, managing director of IMG Canada.

In this year's event, the four competitors will play the front nine on July 23 starting at 1 p.m. and the back nine the following day at 8 a.m.

The event will also be played on Angus Glen's new 7,300-yard North Course.

"I'm really looking forward to (playing in this year's Skins Game)," said Garcia from a videotape that was played at a news conference last week in Toronto. "I heard (Angus Glen) is a really good course, a really nice course. It's going to be another great Skins game and I really enjoy playing Skins games so I think its going to be a lot of fun."

Sixth on the PGA Tour money list last year which included a victory in the 2000 WGC-American Express Championship, Weir was part of the Canadian Skins Game event last season in Kelowna, B.C., which Garcia was a part of. Weir is looking forward to seeing Garcia return to play in this year's ninth annual competition.

"It's great to have Sergio back this year. He's one of the most exciting young players in the world. We always have a great time playing together," said the 30-year-old native of Bright's Grove, Ont.

With the event taking place at Angus Glen, Merrall noted it marks the first time since 1995 that the Skins Game will return to the Toronto area. Merrall noted negotiations in bringing the event to Angus Glen began about three months ago but were wrapped up in quick fashion.

Tickets for this event will go on sale April 4 through Ticketmaster.

Tickets will be $175 for a three-day ticket, and $25 for a Sunday Celebrity-Am ticket only.
