

AOC opens newest branch in North York

SADDLE BROOK, NJ — AOC financial staffing and recruiting has announced the opening of its newest branch in North York. As of May 1, Katherine Cicciarella, who is AOC's Area Manager, will work closely with the new office to deliver maximum assistance to new and existing AOC clientele. This new location at 4950 Yonge Street, Ste. 300, will be joining the Toronto branch in matching the right people with the right companies.

"The entire AOC staff is excited about working with North York area companies and providing them the same outstanding level of service we've achieved in more than 100 locations throughout the world," says Diane O'Meally, president of AOC. "Our staff is looking forward to assisting the North York business community in recruiting superior accounting and finance personnel."

The new AOC North York branch operation opens on May 1, 2001 with a core staff of professional recruiters and staffing consultants led by Luciane Nalli. As Branch Manager of AOC, Luciane brings more than eight years of industry experience to the North York office.

For more information, contact Luciane Nalli at 416-483-2121 or by fax: 416-483-9639.

With more than 120 offices worldwide, AOC is a world leader in the placement of temporary and direct-hire accounting and finance personnel.

Cops, firefighters facing off tomorrow

Police officers and firefighters will take off their holsters and fire helmets and pick up hockey sticks in Whitchurch-Stouffville on Sunday.

Tickets are still available for the Battle of the Badges, a hockey game featuring teams from the Whitchurch-Stouffville Fire Department and the York Regional Police.

The charity game gets under way at noon at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Recreation Complex.

Added attractions to hockey game includes a spectacular performance by the Markham

Midnight Majestics. The 19-member precision skaters recently returned from the national competition where they placed fourth. The Majestics will perform before the game and return for a second performance between the second and third period.

The winner is easy to predict: It's the Big Brothers of York. The charity game is designed to benefit the local youth organization.

Whitchurch-Stouffville firefighter Joel Fletcher expects the game will attract a sizable crowd. "We hope to make this a yearly event," said Fletcher.

Unfortunately, scheduling problems has prohibited the Stouffville Figure Skating Club from taking part. Sparky the Firefighter Dog will leave the Markham Fire Station for the day and join his Stouffville colleagues on the ice.

Admission to the game will be $4 for adults and $2 for seniors, while children will be admitted with a donation of a non-perishable food item to be handed over to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Foodbank.
