Edmunds Home Improvements - a clear choice for window replacement

In Markham, Edmunds is a name that is synonymous with quality roofing. In fact, Edmunds has been reshingling homes in the Markham community for over half a century. Roofing will always remain an integral part of the company's business.

Since the present owners Steve and Kathryn Gibson took over Edmunds 12 years ago, the company has gained a growing reputation for installing excellent vinyl window and siding products.

Steve, who has 22 years' experience in the construction business, performs most of the in-home estimates. He is happy to assist customers in choosing the window features and styles that will best suit their home and personal needs. His wife, Kathryn, applies her administrative background to scheduling, dealing with customer inquiries and the day-to-day operations of the company.

Steve recommends and install "Vinylbilt" replacement windows. A large local manufacturer, Vinylbilt has a proven track record for quality and customer service and offers a no-nonsense lifetime warranty on their window units and hardware.

Steve points out, however, that choosing the right window is only half the battle. A poorly installed window will often bind, function poorly or fail prematurely.

He gives credit to his experienced installers who take pride in their work. Their quality workmanship is key to the successful completion of any Edmunds project, and the consistently high degree of customer satisfaction.

Spruce up your interior at Drapery Den

Is there a room in your home that's looking a little plain? Could it benefit from an infusion of personality?

Paul and Areyt Rooney of Drapery Den have the knowledge and expertise to help you add personality to any room in your home.

"We provide hands-on expertise to help you coordinate your choices with existing decor, lifestyle needs and style preferences," says Paul.

Drapery Den's spacious showroom on Main Street in Stouffville features a comprehensive selection of brand name fabrics, custom window coverings, bedding, upholstery and wallpaper.

Customers who visit Drapery Den can flip through books of fabrics and view selections of hard and soft window coverings (including wood shutters, mini and micro blinds, cellular and roller shades, drapes and fabric valances), decorative curtain rods and more. Whatever room you're looking to spruce up, the friendly staff at Drapery Den are ready to offer professional assistance.

SHEER SIMPLICITY

Sheers are a hot design element this season. Whether you're working with a contemporary, traditional, eclectic or country style, sheer fabrics work well with every decorating style. The beauty of sheer fabrics is that they allow views to be softened and framed without distracting the eye from other design elements in a room.

Linen textures, burnout patterns, tone-on-tone stripes, metallic inserts, printed sheers and crinkle patterns are some of the styles available. When it comes to printed sheers, a wide assortment of animal skin patterns, ivy leaf or French vineyard patterns is also available.

Today's window dressings include beautiful rodding, brackets and finials with simple panels, swags, cornice boxes - even tab-style draperies. Sheer draperies can be casually hung or made with traditional pleats.

If you can't find what you're looking for in the store, staff will search for the product and answer any of your interior decorating questions.

Looking for a new Ottoman or Queen Anne bench to complement an existing design element? Drapery Den also makes lovely hand-crafted furniture. "Customers can choose what fabrics they would like on any furniture that we make," says Paul.

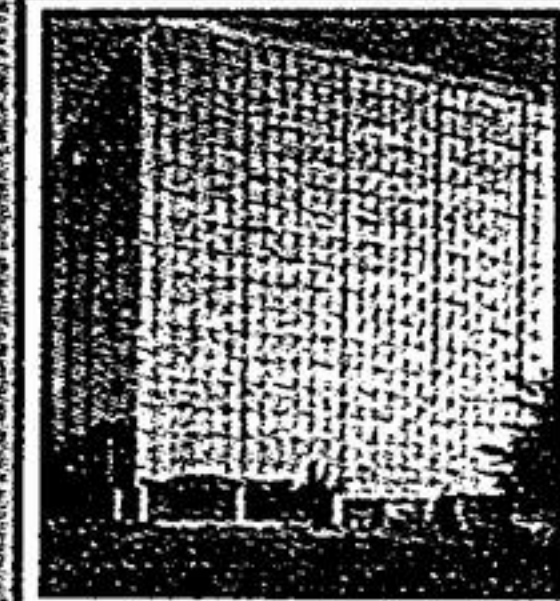

A lifetime warranty is offered on the structure of the furniture.

Drapery Den also provides a free Shop-At-Home Service. A professional interior designer will visit customers in their own homes, with fabric and drapery samples to coordinate a personal look. An in-home colour consultation service is also available.
