COURT REPORTER

An organized communicator with dicta, transcribing and keyboarding skills of at least 60 w.p.m., will do well in this role to provide clerical and administrative assistance to the judiciary while court is in session. You have successfully completed grade 12 or possess an equivalent education, and must be certified by the Court Reporters' Association of Ontario. Significant experience as a court reporter with a private reporting service or an Ontario court is critical. Knowledge of the Provincial Offences Act, the Courts of Justice Act, and the integrated court offences network (ICON) is essential, as is proficiency in a Microsoft Office Windows environment.

Please forward your resume, quoting #1329 by June 29, 2001, to the address below. We thank all applicants for their interest; only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
