Stouffville students medal at taekwondo junior nationals

Three Stouffville residents who study martial arts at Myung's Taekwondo Academy came home with medals from last weekend's Canadian National Junior Taekwondo Championships in Mississauga.

Sarah May, a nine-year-old green belt student, earned a bronze in sparring and silver in patterns while competing in the 9-10 green belt division.

Alicia Stead, a nine-year-old green stripe student, was first in patterns in the 9-10 green belt division.

Nicole Thompson, a seven-year-old green belt student, won gold in sparring in the 7-8 green belt division.

The competition had representatives from across Canada.
