YORK REGION HEALTH AND COMMUNITY SERVICES MOVE TO NEW LOCATION IN RICHMOND HILL

The Regional Municipality of York is pleased to announce the opening of its new South Services Centre facility at 50 High Tech Road (off Yonge St., north of Highway 7) in Richmond Hill.

The following health and community services and programs are now offered at this new location, Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.:

York Region Health Services (formerly located on the lower level of York Central Hospital in Richmond Hill):

- Dental Clinic
- Family and Community Health
- Health Protection
- Sexual Health Clinic
- No-Smoking By-law Enforcement Team

Call (905) 762-2090 or Health Connection toll free at 1-800-361-5653.

York Region Social Assistance Division (formerly located on Cochrane Dr. in Markham) provides Ontario Works employment and financial services, as well as an Employment Resource Centre. Call (905) 762-2095 or 1-866-208-0049 toll free.

York Region Family and Children's Services Division (formerly located on Yonge Street in Newmarket and on Highway #7 in Vaughan) offers:

- Early Intervention Services
- Child Care Services
- Pre-school Speech and Language Services

Call (905) 762-2096 or 1-866-208-0050 toll free.

York Region Transit and the Provincial Offences offices of the Ontario Court of Justice will open on October 1 and November 5 respectively. For more information, call (905) 762-1282.

TEAMING UP FOR THE HOSPITAL

Kicking off the Team 905 project for Markham Stouffville Hospital at Buttonville Airport yesterday were, from left, hospital foundation chair Dennis C. Line, Whitchurch-Stouffville Mayor Wayne Emmerston, Markham Mayor Don Cousens and project chair Allister Byrne. Local businesses are being asked to pledge $905 each for the hospital's diagnostic imaging department. The campaign will be recognized at community days on Nov. 21 in Whitchurch-Stouffville and Nov. 22 in Markham.
