Locals exhibit at Toronto show

Ten residents from Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville are among the 750 Canadian artisans selling their goods at the One of a Kind Christmas Show.

Exhibitors will sell items as diverse as hockey games and candy at the show, which takes place Nov. 22 to Dec. 2 at the National Trade Centre on Toronto's CNE grounds.

Also featured will be exhibits of gifts, home furnishings, art and fashion.

Markham exhibitors are Edward Hong Chiu, who paints on wood and canvas; Jeff and Sue Firkser (acrylic and oil paintings); Peter Byberg (wooden and metal hockey games) and Jenny Goan (hand-knit scarfs and sweaters).

Artisans from Whitchurch-Stouffville are Charlotte and Linda Randazzo (gourmet fudge), Gary Ruona (bird and bat houses), Brook Jones (chocolate almond brittle) and Gail Pasternack (pottery).

The show will be open weekdays from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., Saturdays between 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Admission for adults is $10, seniors and children from 13 to 17 years old are $6.50 and children 12 and younger are free.
