

Parkette rammed; Stouffville man charged

More than $10,000 damage to a new parkette on Markham Main Street early Sunday morning was likely a result of a fail-to-remain accident and may have been the work of a drunk driver, police say.

A 25-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville man was picked up by police at 3:30 a.m. Sunday as he walked unsteadily along Stouffville Road.

He was charged with impaired driving and having more than the legal limit of alcohol in his system after officers found his blue pickup truck slammed into a hydro pole on Ninth Line.

About 10:30 a.m. police received a call about damage to the parkette, near Joseph Street, and officers were sent to investigate.

They found extensive damage to the gate, several trees and the solid steel gazebo, said Const. Steve Morrell.

They also found a licence plate. "It appears the same vehicle was involved in both accidents," Morrell said. "The investigation is continuing."

The man appears in court Dec. 10 and could face further charges, Morrell said.
