A special thank you to our wonderful support team of family and friends who remained by our side at the hospital. John, I rejoice in the life we had together. You were my husband, best friend and soul mate. I love you and was loved by you. Your family knew they were loved and cared for in such a special way and that you were always there for us. Your friends knew that you could always be counted on to be there for them. You touched many lives and we are all richer for knowing and loving you.
