Stouffville winner pays bills, plans to buy a house

So he knew the group had won. But because he didn't have their phone numbers, he couldn't let them know.

Mr. Heath finally heard the news on Sunday evening, by finding one of the group members through directory assistance.

The group had beaten one-in-14-million odds.

"I was relieved," he said about finding out. "I was in worse shape thinking he didn't buy the ticket. That was my impression. I'm looking at the (computer) screen. The right date's there, the right number's there, everything is correct to my knowledge and I'm sitting there and I got nobody to talk to and I'm looking at all these numbers.

"The more I looked at them, I could feel myself just shaking, I could feel the tears in my eyes."

With his $240,000 share, Mr. Heath has paid off his bills and plans to buy a house for himself, his wife and his eight-year-old son. At the moment they live in an apartment over a store on Main Street, Stouffville.

"I haven't got over the shock," he admitted. "It hasn't really sunk in. It's just too much to believe. It's a dream. You dream all your life of winning the lottery. So the dream came true."

The group of seven bought another 6/49 ticket this week, using a new number. And — first thing Monday morning — they exchanged phone numbers.
