Back Stage Hair were 'wonderful'

By ROD URQUHART

Linda MacFarlane of Markham had never really had a complete makeover before her New You Makeover at Back Stage Hair. However, after her makeover, she exclaimed, "they were wonderful. They were really good. I highly recommend them."

Linda noted that everyone she came in contact with at Back Stage Hair, "they listened to what you wanted."

A long-haired woman, she noted, "I never had short hair in my life. I trusted his (Nunzio) decision and the hair-cut I needed."

Back Stage Hair Owner/Stylist Nunzio noted that when Linda came in, "she had long and tattered hair. There was some natural grey and the remains of highlights."

Nunzio said "we decided to update her look and give her a whole new look for the millennium."

He pointed out that Linda's look before the makeover "was stuck in the 1970s and 1980s. She just washes and leaves it and it's done. She was up for a change."

Nunzio noted that Linda has very fine hair. First he performed the cut. He cut it short and layered her hair with a lot of texture to create volume.

They then discussed the colouring and what Linda wanted. Nunzio had to cover the grey and "brighten up" Linda's look.

They agreed on Honey Blonde colour as a highlight and second a Strawberry Blonde highlight - "one colour gives depth and one colour gives reflection - it creates a dimension and movement in the hair."

Back Stage Hair did a semi-permanent colour, a light blonde throughout the remaining hair not highlighted.

"We let it process and we blow dried it out with a texturing product," noted Nunzio.

Next Esthetician/Makeup Artist Daiana went to work on Linda as part of the New You Makeover. "She let me do whatever, but she wanted to do something that was wearable, but different than what she normally wears."

"She had a purple sweater on and I used a lot of plums and mauves. She normally wears earth tones and I changed it into something she could feel comfortable in."

With the lipstick, she did more of

Your body is changing, your life doesn't have to.

More than 30 million American women are menopausal. More are approaching this personal transition, during which various forms of hormone therapy become necessary to help treat symptoms such as hot flashes, weight gain, moodiness and sleep disturbances.

Bio-Identical Hormone Replacement Therapy may be an effective solution for those women who want another option to synthetic hormone therapy. Compounding pharmacists can prepare treatments using plant-derived hormones that are biologically identical to those naturally occurring in women, and specially adapted to match your individual hormone levels. You're unique—why shouldn't your therapy be?

Ask your physician about Bio-Identical Hormone Replacement Therapy today.
