A chain of fresh orchids, a childrens' choir and a local scout troop will be part of the March 1 grand opening of the new A & P store in Stouffville's west end. Like the old A & P, the new store at the corner of Main Street and Sandale Road will be open seven days a week, 24 hours a day, making it convenient for shift workers and other late-night shoppers, said Doug Brummer, A & P's senior vice-president of marketing and advertising. More than 280 people, including 100 new employees will work at the new store. Since A & P's motto is "fresh obsessed," the tropical flowers, the youthful sound of the Summitview Public School Choir and the smiling faces of boys from the South Lake Simcoe District Boy Scouts will certainly fit the occasion, said Mr. Brummer. In addition to the public, also attending the grand opening will be A & P executives, local store managers and employees and members of Whitchurch-Stouffville council. Mayor Wayne Emmerson will help cut the "chain of orchids" to officially opening the new store, said Mr. Brummer. Taking an "out with the old and in with the new" approach, the shift to the d
