

Victims aren't cooperating with police

said Det. West. Neither are the two surviving victims.

"The ones who recovered, their information is sketchy at best and they are not cooperating at all," he said, adding all three victims were known to police before this incident.

However, surveillance video caught images of the suspects entering Viva a few minutes before the attack and police are asking for the public's help in identifying the four others believed to be involved.

They are described as:

Suspect No. 1 — male Oriental, aged 17 to 20, five-foot-four to five-foot-seven inches tall, 120 to 140 pounds, with short black hair parted in the centre with blond highlights in front. He was wearing a dark jacket, white shirt and light-coloured pants.

"The ones who recovered, their information is sketchy at best and they are not cooperating at all."

Suspect No. 2 — male Oriental, five-foot-five to five-foot-eight, 120 to 140 pounds, short black hair parted in the centre, wearing a dark jacket and dark pants.

Suspect No. 3 — male black, five-foot-six to five-foot-nine, 130 to 160 pounds, wearing a dark baseball cap with a white logo above peak, possibly Nike, jacket and light-coloured pants.

Suspect No. 4 — male Oriental, five-foot-three to five-foot-five, 110 to 130 pounds, dark hair parted in the centre and cut short on the sides but left long in front, wearing a dark jacket and light-coloured pants.

The suspect vehicle is a late '80s Japanese model, around 1988, four-door, grey or beige. It's described as similar to a Toyota Tercel or Honda Accord.

Anyone with information is asked to call 905-881-1221, ext. 7871 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.
