DEMYSTIFYING DEMENTIA

Strategies for Families and Caregivers Coping with a Loved One's Dementia or Alzheimer Disease

featuring Susan Hart
Director of the Alzheimer Society of York Region and author of Demystifying Dementia

Sunrise Assisted Living of Unionville presents Susan Hart, Director of the Alzheimer Society of York Region, and published author of five books about caring for those with Alzheimer and cognitive impairment, including the recently released "Demystifying Dementia." Susan Hart will share with insight and humour innovative and flexible strategies for adult care giving while recognizing the changing family and community challenges inherent with the Alzheimer disease process. Susan will introduce us to the person behind the disease and the disease process with a comprehensive overview of the many aspects of dementia. She has worked for over thirty years in the long-term care system caring for people with cognitive impairment.
