

Scholarships offered to region's rising young stars

It's time to celebrate the arts in York Region again.

As part of the celebration, the York Region Newspaper Group wants to help fund amateur artists with its second annual Celebration of the Arts Scholarship Program.

"The purpose of this is to encourage the artistic talent in York Region," Marsha Winton, co-chairperson of the York Region Celebration of the Arts Committee, said of the scholarship fund. "We've established a series of scholarships to help rising amateur artists further their careers."

Actors, singers, dancers and musicians are encouraged to enter the competition.

Mrs. Winton said the arts play an important role in the community.

"The cultural organizations indicate the maturity of the community," said Mrs. Winton, an advertising representative with the newspaper group. "We thought it was a natural fit for the newspaper to partner with the arts community. We should be community leaders in this."

The wealth of talent in the community impresses Mrs. Winton.

"When you see these kids it's absolutely amazing," she said.

Applications are available at the offices of the Markham Economist & Sun at 9 Heritage Rd in Markham, the Stouffville Sun/Tribune at 34 Civic Ave. in Stouffville, The Era-Banner at 580 Steven Ct. in Newmarket and The Liberal at Hillcrest Mall in Richmond Hill, or online at www.yorkregion.com

The last date for submissions is June 28 at 5 p.m. Late applications will not be accepted.
