Family living in pot house

BY KATHLEEN GRIFFIN
Staff Writer

Meyer Circle residents watched with disbelief Monday as police raided a home on the Markham street, carrying out dozens of marijuana plants as they dismantled a hydroponic grow lab.

Unlike most labs, the house containing this one (in the 16th Avenue-Hwy. 48 area) was occupied by a family, including a nine-year-old boy.

Two pairs of children's sandals lay outside the back door near a closed hot tub and a computer and desk could be seen through a back window.

Although an officer kicked in a side door, no one was in the home at the time.

A small sandwich board on the front yard read: "This address was raided by
