UNIONVILLE VILLAGE FESTIVAL

Events scheduled for Friday, May 31

Grab your Dancing Shoes and bring your cheque book!!!

This year the Unionville Village Festival Dance is proud and excited to present from CHUM FM's morning show: Roger Ashby and Tom Jokic!!

Roger and Tom promise a great evening of "gettin' down" with the 70's, "groovin" with the 80's, and maybe even a little something from more recent years!!! Whatever your pleasure, make sure you get your tickets early - they'll be sure to sell out quickly this year!

Tickets are $25 and are now available at The Unionville Arms Pub & Grill on Main Street and at Toogood Cafe on Main Street. As usual, there will be a tasty light meal to keep you energized and a fantastic Silent Auction with items you just won't believe. Check back often as we update our listing of what will be up for bids that night, as items come in! And don't worry about the cheque book...auction items can be paid for by cash, Visa, debit or cheque!
