

Sentencing delayed in Markham traffic death trial

BY CHRISSE O'BRIEN
Special

A Scarborough man convicted in a horrific Markham car crash two years ago must wait three more months to find out his sentence.

Sentencing in the trial of Petro Pak Po Lam was originally slated for earlier this week. It has been rescheduled to Aug. 26 at Newmarket Superior Court.

Earlier this year Mr. Lam was found guilty of manslaughter in the death of 29-year old Andrea

Pike after a May, 2000 collision at Woodbine Avenue and Riviera Drive.

A reconstruction of the accident by York Regional Police indicated Mr. Lam's car was travelling 170 kilometres an hour in a 70-kilometre zone when he T-boned Mrs. Pike's car as she tried to make a left turn out of a plaza.
