Tiger Woods hopes to be at the Open

Tiger Woods wants to play Angus Glen in Markham this summer. He's just not sure if he can squeeze it into his itinerary.

Tiger was on Toronto's Olympic Island Monday for the official launch of the American Express Tiger Woods credit card. Canada is being used as a test market for the card, which offers a range of inducements to golfers. American Express's Canadian head office is in Markham.

Tiger, as is his custom, was noncommittal about whether he'd be competing in the 2002 Canadian Open, Sept. 5-8 at Angus Glen.

"I'm looking at it right now on my schedule. Hopefully, it will fit," said Tiger, winner of the event two years ago.

"We'll see what happens. I'd love to come back and play, especially on this new golf course."
