Classes to be held at new tool store located in Stouffville

(From page 16)

He took two units on Ringwood and converted them into one for 2,600 square feet of space. At the back of the store, he has used and new machines, all used for wood-working.

His slogan is, "add men and wood and you have furniture."

Also at the back of the store and upstairs, he has benches for classes.

And, as reported at the beginning, he's been planning opening Tool Junkie for some time. "Nothing in this world works if you don't plan," he noted.

"This store is unique — there's nothing like this in Stouffville.

"I have a lot of inventory so I can give people a choice," he exclaimed.

He also sells: table saws; band saws; drill press; joiners; main stationary machines; routers; jigsaws; drills; and belt sanders — everything one needs for woodworking.

Only open three weeks, word is getting around, as people come as far as London, Ontario, Port Perry, Orangeville and Markham.

"It takes time as any place that is new," said Murali.
