PERFORMANCE

Honda's customer-driven engineering is born out of our racing heritage. It has led to numerous engineering advances in performance, such as Honda VTEC engine technology – delivering more power while minimizing engine stress, and providing greater fuel efficiency and lower emissions. No wonder Honda is the largest engine manufacturer in the world.

SAFETY

Civics and Accords are built with multiple safety features including a reinforced-steel body frame, crumple zones and dual side impact beams. When you drive a Honda you are driving one of the safest cars on the road.

NHTSA FIVE-STAR SAFETY RATING ††

COMFORT

Honda strives to maximize the total driving experience for driver and passengers by minimizing the space needed for mechanical components. The comforting results are larger seats, more headroom, legroom and cargo space.
