Principal took time to fuss over Orchard Park students said Mrs. O'Shaughnessy. Mrs. Jones was with the York Region board of education for 22 years. Before coming to Stouffville in 1999, she was the principal of an elementary school in Sutton. She also taught in Peel Region and in Toronto.

And, Orchard Park is tops with Mrs. Jones. "I have loved it here. It is a wonderful school," she said. "I leave with a great deal of emotion and a lot of pride," she said.

Regardless of what the Ministry of Education dished her way over the many years, Mrs. Jones continued to insist that "good school teachers rise to the challenges."

And, a caring teacher takes the time to fuss over the kids, Mrs. Jones added. "I've kissed lots of scraped knees and elbows over the years," she said.

First thing on the agenda is family. If fall goes as planned, Mrs. Jones will become a grandmother for the first time on July 7. Her daughter, Julie Ogilvie, of Markham is scheduled to give birth. "Grandma is a good job," said Mrs. Jones. Meanwhile, next spring she plans to take a trip to England to visit her son and then it's on to Portugal.
