ATTENTION
Whitchurch Stouffville Block Parents!

Due to the fact that the current committee is insufficiently staffed of volunteers, this program is closing. Block Parents are asked to return their Block Parent sign to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library situated at 30 Burkholder Street. The sign can be dropped off at the Information desk. The Library's summer hours are:

Mon - Thurs 9:30am to 9pm
 Fri - Sat 9:30am to 4pm
 Sun Noon to 4pm

For all of you who have participated in this program within the last 15 years, we thank you very much for your support! Within our area, please advise your children that they are not to ask for assistance at any homes that display a Block Parent sign; it will not have been screened and approved by our local police. If you have any questions please call 905-640-4403.

Last weekend's Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival brought all sorts of people out to enjoy the festivities. LEFT: The Muirheads — mom Susan, flanked by Andrew, 7, and Robert, 4, along with dad Steve and three-year-old daughter Kirsten on his shoulders — stroll up Main Street Saturday. An estimated 30,000 people attended the event. TOP: Seven year old Avery Harrison ponders her father Chris's advice on hat selection. MR. SUB

Always Something Good Goin' Down at MR. SUB

They're Back! After a 2 year absence from Stouffville, the truly Canadian sandwich restaurant re-opened its location next to the Go station on Main St. New franchisee Debbie Karamaritas with son Nick who also own the Mr. Sub location in Oak Ridges opened up their completely redesigned café-style MR. SUB restaurant at 6162 Main Street to anxious patrons on Tuesday, June 18th.

This MR. SUB is designed with a very contemporary and relaxed "café" feel, in order to maximize the eating experience, and better showcase all of MR. SUB's fresh food offerings.

A 100% Canadian company, MR. SUB's success is based on fresh thinking, fresh innovative business practices and fresh food ideas. Today's menu showcases subs made on a variety of fresh baked buns, wraps, soups, a fresh new line-up of salads and a variety of beverages, including Village Beanery roasted coffee. Top it all off with "the best fresh baked cookies and cinnamon buns" and you've got a true recipe for success guaranteed to please every taste bud.
