The School Fine Dining

Fine dining still exists in Markham. The School, housed in the former Hagerman Public School, offers people a place to go for excellent food, wonderful service and fabulous atmosphere. Owners Nick and George Zarafonitis purchased the school house in 1989 and have turned it into a fine dining steak and seafood house. They continue to emphasize a quality dining experience based on fresh and natural fed-ingredients and products.

Despite some major changes (including an addition and the outdoor patio), The School retains its Victorian charm. There are numerous rooms at The School which makes it ideal for all occasions. People can enjoy a romantic candlelit dinner in the main dining room or enjoy a bottle of wine with friends in the lounge. But regardless of the occasion, customers will receive first-class service from waiters who know how to make their guests feel completely at home.
