

Performance office chair for all sporty drivers

Are you stuck spending more time in your office chair than driving your favourite car? You might be able to get a little more of that feeling of freedom and style with the Corbeau office chair.

Yes, put your eyes back in their sockets: Corbeau makes of sporty aftermarket automotive seat that comes as a roll-around office chair. All models begin with a hydraulic-lift swivel base and molded arms. All you need to do is pick the seat. The chair Corbeau recommends most often is the Sport Seat, which fits people of all shapes and sizes, including executives with bigger-than-average builds. Every Sport Seat is crafted from high-density foam that is molded into an orthopedic shape to ensure comfort. As well, the back section will recline and headrest can be raised or lowered to give you more adjustment. Starting US $225 for the base, the total cost depends on the chair you want to add. The Sport Seat, for example, starts at $278 for vinyl and moves up from there. See the complete line of Corbeau at corbeau.com or call 1-801-255-3737.
