

Pipe crash closes Wal-Mart store

A pipe crashed through the ceiling of the Wal-Mart store in the Markville Shopping Centre minutes after it opened Thursday, but no one was injured.

The discount chain said workers were in a level under construction above the store, when the pipe fell in just after 8 a.m. The store was immediately closed.

"Fortunately, nobody was in that area," said Andrew Pelletier, Wal-Mart Canada's corporate affairs director, who said the store was taking steps to ensure such an accident never happens again.

The store reopened later the same day.
