A sincere thank you to everyone for all the lovely cards, gifts, flowers and best wishes that made my 90th Birthday such a memorable occasion.

Evelyn Sale

I would like to thank all the people who have helped and supported my family through the tragic loss of my son, Paul Bouchard. To the wonderful staff at the A&P store, to Anne Pride for working so hard with Fr. Tamas of St. Mark's Catholic Church for the church service, to Fr. Tamas for his prayers and service to lay my son, Paul, to rest. To Lori and Robin at O'Neill's Funeral Home, for the extra mile they walked for me... I thank you. To Neil and Rob "the detectives", the man in the plane who found Paul, and to the officers in Grimsby, I thank you. To my dearest sister, Cookie, and husband, Eugene, I thank God for giving them the strength to carry me. To Marion and Terry, Janice and Paul, for each day they picked me up to walk again, I thank you. To my five brothers, Dave, Greg, Curtis, Allan and Rick and their wonderful wives, Charlene, Bonnie, Leanne, Lynn and Ellen, I thank you. To all of Paul's friends who helped with the photo collages for the funeral home and who made the trips to Hamilton for his snowboard, skateboards and his hockey sticks, for whatever I asked of them, I thank you. To Mrs. Susan Wadsworth for such a wonderful job on the cards that were handed out at the funeral, Kwik Kopy Printing for allowing her to do a fabulous job, I thank you. To the wonderful people who brought food to my home, sent flowers and fruit baskets, to the man who came every night to straighten up my kitchen, to my friend who gave candles so the light would not go out, to the lady who did my ironing, I thank you. To my Mom and Dad who travelled from Newfoundland, to family members who came from as far away as the Gaspé Coast, Quebec, to my family from Timmins, Marathon and Hornby, Ont., I thank you all. To Ellene and her mother, Mrs. Dunn, I thank you for a wonderful luncheon that you worked so hard putting together at my home before and after the funeral. To all the fabulous people who lined up at the funeral home, the ones who hugged me, the ones who couldn't reach me, the ones I knew, the ones I didn't, to the ones I remember and to the ones I can't, I thank you. To my wonderful boys who carried Paul to rest: Daniel, Bronson, Eric, Bruce, Cassey, Cassidy, to the wonderful boys who led the last walk, Cody and Jesse, to the boys that followed with pride, Brad and Jason, thank you. To the staff and students of Glad Park Public School who were there all the way for Cody, to the lady "Leslie"... I thank you.

From my husband, Normand, my sons, Daniel and Cody, from my son, Paul, "Bouch", "Cruiser", and me, Mom thank you, Stouffville. God Bless Us All.

Ida Bouchard on behalf of
The Bouchard, Cyr and Sooley Families.
