If you've noticed some extra activity around the Stouffville Baptist Church lately, that's because of some exciting changes that are taking place. The church is pleased to introduce their new pastor, Rev. Robert Lindsay Gatto and his family. However it's not just a new pastor, but his entire congregation from the Lighthouse Baptist Church that has joined with Stouffville Baptist!

Pastor Gatto has been the pastor of Lighthouse Baptist for the past 16 years, which has been located in Toronto's Beach district for the last 5 years. While working in the city for these years, Pastor Gatto has always had an eye on the north GTA, and the town of Stouffville in particular. He believes Stouffville just may be the premiere family community in the region and is greatly looking forward to working here.

Miracle on Main Street
 Sunday September 1st, 2002

the pastor has many fresh ideas for ministry with children, teens, families and seniors. He teaches the Bible in a practical, relevant and down to earth style, and believes the Bible has the answers to equip us for life. He and his wife Joan have been married for 19 years, and are parents of five children - Josh, age 18; Jordan, age 17; Lauralee, age 15; Victoria, age 10; and Jenna, age 7.

On Sunday, September 1st the two congregations became one, and held their first service together with a good sized crowd. All are invited to come out this week and hear Pastor Gatto, meet him and his family, and the entire congregation. As always you will receive a warm and friendly welcome.
