

Evening benefits hospital, theatre charities

BY LAURA NELLES
Special

Canadian a cappella favourites The Nylons will headline the third annual Body & Soul fundraiser for Markham Stouffville Hospital and the Markham Theatre for Performing Arts.

This year's event, 8:30 p.m. Nov. 21 at the theatre, includes comedians Bowser and Blue plus ex-Cirque Du Soleil performers Smythe and Saucier.

There is also a dinner and silent auction before the show at the Hilton (formerly Embassy) Suites Hotel, near the theatre.

Hospital officials plan to use their portion of the money raised to help buy a Gamma camera, a three-dimensional tool allowing doctors to see very small abnormalities, with can aid in diagnosing tumours and cardiac disease.

The theatre plans to earmark its funds to the Community Arts Education program, which pays for youths to work one-on-one with qualified instructors in drama, dance and music.

For more information or tickets, contact the Markham Theatre box office (171 Town Centre Blvd. near Warden Avenue and Hwy. 7) or call 905-305-SHOW (7469). Tickets are $175 or $75 for the reception and show only.
