 Cathy Carr (top) and Karen Chadwick show off the Christmas decorating done to the front of the Queen's Bridge Mill just north of Unionville. They are involved in decorating some of the houses in the Homes For The Holidays Christmas tour, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 30. All proceeds from the tour are being split between Unionville's Varley Art Gallery and the York Region branch of the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation. For tickets call 905-477-4625.

Generation to Generation: Caring for Your Parents

- Recognizing your parents' needs: physical, emotional and financial
- Understanding your role as the caregiver
- Sustaining a quality of life for you and your family

The role of caring for aging parents and loved ones can be challenging, especially if you're also raising a family. Join Bart Mindszenty, co-author of Parenting Your Parents, Shirlee Sharkey, president and CEO of Saint Elizabeth Health Care, and Edward Jones experts as they discuss the many issues involved in dedicating yourself to caring for those you love.

Santa Has Arrived

On hand to welcome Santa's arrival and Pancake breakfast at Markville Shopping Centre last Saturday was Juliette Schoular. The breakfast, sponsored by Enbridge Consumers Gas, Markville Shopping Centre and the Markham Economist & Sun, served 500 and raised over $1,000 in donations for Chats and the Children's Aid Foundation of York Region.
