Car flips on Ninth Line en route to hospital

A 72-year-old woman driving her 37-year-old daughter south from Stouffville lost control of her car Monday morning, sending both women to hospital as a precaution.

The car flipped over into an east side ditch after the 9:30 a.m. crash on snow-covered roads.

The senior was driving south on the Ninth Line when she careened out of control at Elgin Mills Road.

She was on her way to Markham Stouffville Hospital for a follow-up appointment for her daughter, who recently had surgery on her arm.
