TV talent show auditions here tomorrow

Talented Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville residents have a chance to bask in 15 minutes of fame if they do well at auditions Sunday for Canada's newest reality TV program.

Star Search Canada, a talent search show, is taping auditions for movies, television, commercials and modeling at the Monte Carlo Inn in Markham on Woodbine Avenue from 6 to 8 p.m.

Organizers say you don't need to sing or dance. Contestants are only asked to perform a short monologue if they don't have a skit ready.

The fee is $40. It covers placing the audition tapes and photos in a talent directory. The show's pilot episode airs in fall on an unnamed network. At the end of the season, viewers can vote for their favourite performers. The winners will be in a TV production or photo shoot.
