

the LEGACY 2003 RUN or WALK presents...our PRESENTING SPONSORS

We thank them for their incredible support in building funds for Markham Stouffville Hospital, and their tremendous community involvement.

Sun makes the net work However, on Sunday, April 27th employees of Sun Microsystems of Canada Inc. won't be working. They'll be walking and running as they join members of the community at the Markham Stouffville Hospital Legacy 5km Run/Walk. Stéphane Boisvert, President of Sun Microsystems of Canada Inc., presenting sponsor of the annual run, notes "Sun Microsystems of Canada takes great pride in giving to the community. I encourage members of the community to give some time and walk or run in support of the Markham Stouffville Hospital." Don Hutchinson and Lynn Dunlop of the Legacy Committee thank Stéphane Boisvert & Bob Dowling of Sun Microsystems.

The Scotiabank Group has again elevated their support for the Markham Stouffville Hospital and is one of this year's Presenting Sponsors for the Markham Stouffville Hospital Legacy 5 Km Event. The Markham cluster of branches will be actively participating with fundraising efforts and will be entering many teams of employees in the Event. The Markham Economist & Sun and the Stouffville Sun-Tribune is proud to sponsor the Legacy 5K Run or Walk. The event promotes healthy activity, charitable fundraising and community interaction. The Legacy Run is one of the highlights of the running, if not social, calendar in Markham. It raises money for one of our corporate partners and one of the most important facilities to our readers Markham Stouffville Hospital. Our sponsorship is natural.
