The Royal Travel Group

The Royal Travel Group is an innovative Travel Service and Management Company handling several million dollars in travel arrangements. Having been in business for over 10 years, we satisfy the travel requirements for such high profile clients as Magna International Inc., FedEx, and Black and Decker while equally fulfilling the leisure or corporate needs for just one or two travelers. Our versatility stems from our commitment to excellence in providing dedicated, personalized service, all whilst also offering the most recent "SELL-OFFS". Recognizing that our clients have unique needs forms the foundation of our program success. Understanding and being able to support unique needs and providing extensive destination information is the key to our clients' satisfaction. Our affiliation with TRAVELSAVERS, one of the world's largest travel networks, affords The Royal Travel Group the combined buying power of over 2500 travel offices across North America alone. This enables us to effectively offer our clients the very best in travel services and products, at the lowest possible price.

Acting as the link between our clients and the travel suppliers, we realize how essential it is to stay on the leading edge. As the industry evolves and undergoes significant changes, we strive to be pro-active on our clients' behalf. With Internet access (WWW.TRTG.COM), E-mail capabilities (travel@trtg.com), Client Web reporting and Online Booking, The Royal Travel Group stakes its claim on the new frontier and maintains its position as an industry leader.
