

Computer thieves hit Markham businesses

Two commercial businesses off Woodbine Avenue lost up to $110,000 worth of computer equipment in separate thefts Friday and Saturday nights in Markham.

On Friday, just after 5 a.m., police responded to an alarm call at Bondwell Canada on Nolan Court, just south of Esna Park Drive.

They discovered the front glass door broken and more than $10,000 worth of computers gone. Damage is estimated at $1,000. The following night, about 10:45 p.m., police found the rear door of ASI Computers pried open and two skids of computer processors missing.

Company officials estimate the theft value at between $60,000 and $100,000.

Anyone with information is asked to call 905-881-1221, ext. 7500 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS
