

YOU COULD WIN!

For the past few years, the Village Grocer has been the main sponsor of our Slo-Pitch League's Annual Golf Tournament. It has grown during that time from being a fairly low key event with a bunch of guys having fun, to more of a bash with a bunch of guys having fun — and making lots of money, which we donate to Markham-Stouffville Hospital. To date, our ball league has donated a total of $250,000.00 to the hospital, which is a truly unique achievement in our community.

This year, as in the past few years, we will be holding a raffle draw — and the prizes are:

- (a) A YEAR'S FREE SHOPPING AT OUR STORE..... Maximum Value $5,200⁰⁰
- (b) A BEAUTY COMPAQ LAP TOP COMPUTER, COURTESY OF COMPAQ
- (c) $5,000⁰⁰ TOWARDS THE LEASE OF A CHRYSLER PRODUCT, courtesy of Longman's Chrysler, a longtime supporter of this endeavour.
- (d) A SET OF REALLY NICE PING GOLF CLUBS, A BAG AND, PROBABLY MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, LESSONS from Angus Glen Golf club.
- (e) $500⁰⁰ WORTH OF DINING AT THESE FINE RESTAURANTS: Blacksmith Bistro, The School, La Grotta, The Village Chophouse and the newly reconstructed Bluestone Bistro. You'll receive five certificates of $100⁰⁰ each.

To do your part, you'll need to buy a raffle ticket (or two) from (a) any of the ball players in our league (b) the Foundation Office at the hospital or (c) at our store.

WHAT'S HAPPENIN' OUTSIDE?

- (a) For all you folks who came last week to buy some of our giant lupins, we have one final shipment available. Lupins are a biannual plant — they bloom every second year. It's good to leave a bit of space in your lupin bed to plant a couple next year so you'll have an amazing show every year of these prettiest of flowers.
- (b) We've received a shipment of Hibiscus Bushes with five different colours to choose from.
- (c) We'll have some Black-eyed Susan hangers this week.
- (d) We have a great array of floor planters with a full and overflowing show of colour.
- (e) A further shipment of 6" Gerbera Daisies is here.
- (f) The last load of urns has arrived — they've been a great success this year because we've had a very unique assortment, priced right!
- (g) Our Boston Ferns are back and ...
- (h) We'll have a few bargains this week to clear up some of the more seasonal items. It'll be your last chance to fill a couple of vacancies in your garden.

TEXAS BEEF CHOPS!

Once a year we make these available for sale. What they are is a steak of Neanderthal size — either one of the last two full bones of a prime rib. It's a major steak. They'll need to be BBQ'd about 20-25 minutes to be perfect.

Where's our beef from?

We're one of the very few who actually go and pick our meat at the packers. This beef all originates from Western and Southwestern Ontario.

Is it safe?

We certainly believe it is — I for one am very happy to see the commitment from the Dept. of Agriculture to reassure us Canadians and our world wide customers of the safety of Canadian Beef.

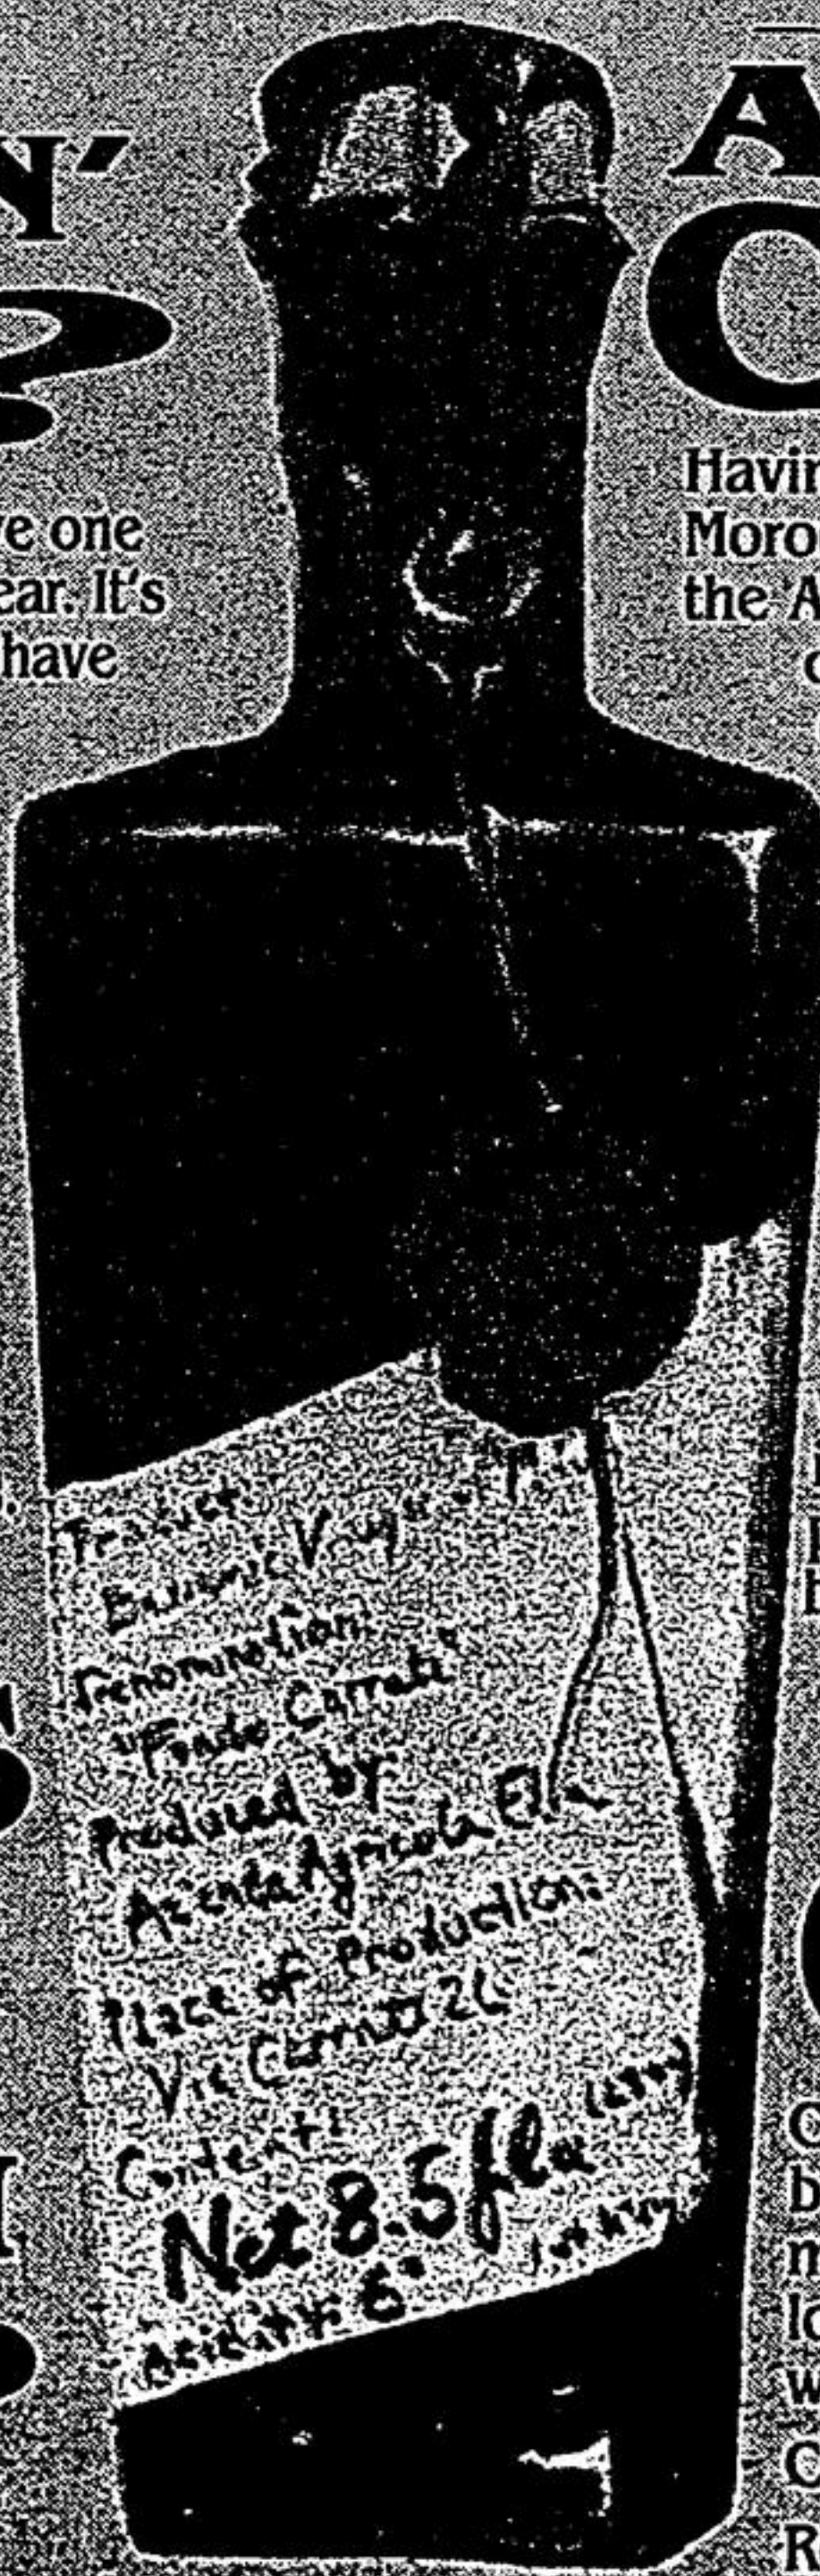

While quantities last!

SEEDLESS WATERMELON

When I was a kid (not so long ago) I loved the seeds in watermelons — they were great ammunition, much to my mom's displeasure. Now being a parent, I fully appreciate seedless melons at home. Not only are they a lot easier to eat, they're a lot easier to clean up. It must have been a Mom that invented these.

ARGENTINIAN CLEMENTINES

Having watched from a distance the success of Spanish and Moroccan Clementines, and possessing a similar climate (in parts), the Argentines have grown some clementines. They are a bit more difficult to peel, but they peel clean and the fruit tastes fresh picked.

They're good.

OUR PEPPERETTES

Our pepperettes are on sale this week. They seem like the perfect item to accompany a glass of beer poolside — or anywhere else that beer is consumed.

OUR OLD-FASHIONED CABBAGE ROLLS

Cabbage Rolls are a hot item in our store. I imagine it's because they're so time-consuming to make that few people make them at home. Whatever the reason, they don't last long in our freezer — especially when they're one of this week's features! So come early and get them while they last.
