

Jones Pools retain Waterloo tourney title

Greg Dalgarno took matters into his own hands when he belted a tie-breaking sixth-inning leadoff homer and scattered just five hits to propel the Stouffville Jones Pools midgets to their second straight Waterloo fastball tournament title with a 4-3 win over the Waterloo Halman Twins in last weekend's championship game.

Stouffville took a 2-0 first-inning lead when Nick Dambrosio led off with a bunt single and scored on a single by Rob Clayton.

Clayton then scored on a ground ball by Greg Dalgarno.

A single by Clayton in the top of the third inning, followed by a long fly ball from Dalgarno staked Stouffville to a 3-0 lead.

But the Twins scored three runs in their half of the third to tie the game.

That set the stage for Dalgarno's heroics in the sixth inning.

In round-robin play, Stouffville defeated Napanee 7-6, Wyndham Centre 5-1 and Conestoga 7-0. Advancing to the semi-finals, Stouffville required one extra inning to edge Elmira 4-3.

The Stouffville squad will host an eight-team tournament Saturday at Stouffville Memorial Park.

Award-winning Spirit season
