

Woman robbed in Stouffville park

A trio of young men accosted and robbed a woman Sunday night in Stouffville Memorial Park.

York Regional Police said a 27-year-old woman was approached by three men who teased and questioned her about the contents of her purse at 11:30 p.m.

One of the men grabbed her purse and all three fled on foot, police said.

All three suspects appeared to be 24 or 25 years old.

The first is described as black, six-foot, two-inches tall and wearing a white Roots ball cap.

The others, described as white, are six-foot, two-inches and five-foot, one-inch tall.

Car dealer employees hurt during attack

Two car dealership employees and their boss suffered minor injuries after an enraged customer, upset about repairs made to a recently purchased vehicle, allegedly struck the employees and threatened the owner with a knife.

The attack happened about 6 p.m. Tuesday at Unionville Used Car Sales on Hwy. 7, police said.

The man fled in his car after the confrontation but turned himself in to police after officers contacted him.

The victims did not require medical treatment.

A 40-year-old Markham man is charged with two counts of assault, threaten death or injury and assault with a weapon. He also is charged under the Highway Traffic Act with driving with a suspended licence.

Attempted carjacking

Several men tried to take a car from a driver who parked at a Markham stoplight Sunday.

While the driver of a Honda Prelude was stopped at McCowan Road and Hwy. 7 at about 11:40 p.m., three men from a car in front approached and assaulted him and a male passenger, demanding the keys, police said.

A third vehicle then tried to block the victim from behind but the motorist managed to drive away.

Police said three Toronto men ranging in age from 22 to 28 were arrested a short distance away and charged with attempted robbery and mischief.
