Clarion Baker, 83, filled community with music

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

Clarion Baker was a quiet man who filled the world around him with joyful sound.

The life-long Stouffville resident, remembered by many for his exceptional musical talent, died Thursday, Sept. 11 at Bloomington Cove. He was 83.

Visitation is Friday at the O'Neill Funeral Home in Stouffville from 10 a.m. until the 11:30 a.m. service. Burial follows at Baker Hill Cemetery.

Over the years, Mr. Baker became known to many as he played the piano and organ at friends' and neighbours' weddings, funerals and celebrations. He was the organist at Claremont United Church for 23 years until 1995. For 20 years before that, he played organ at Baker Hill Baptist Church.

"His talents for the piano and organ just rolled out of the tips of his fingers," said his closest friend Don Holt. "And he would sometimes play a little joke on you."

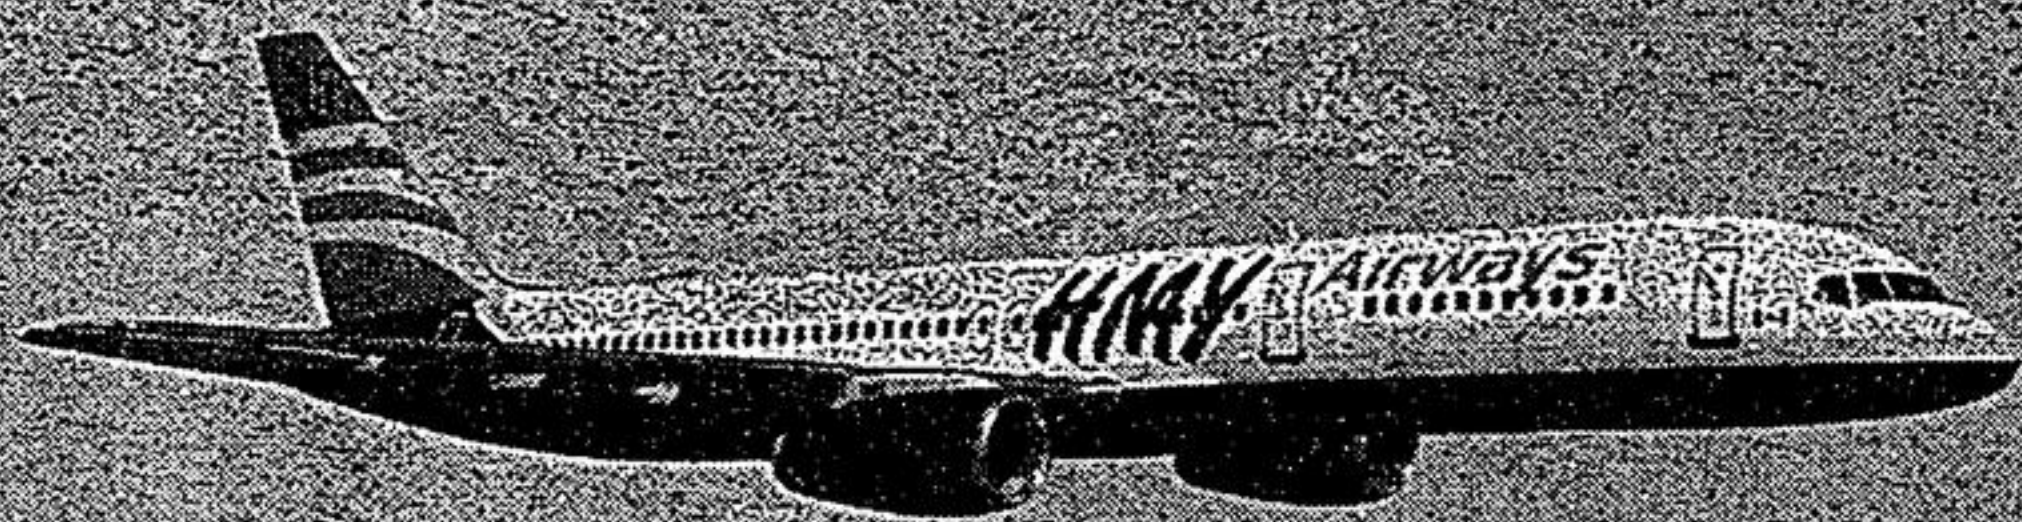

Mr. Holt related how his friend visited him close to midnight one evening, urging him to play a record. It turned out to be a sleep record, with extremely soothing music. "After I woke up," Mr. Holt said, "the record was gone and so was he."

Mr. Baker is remembered by neighbours John and Judith MacInnis and Stephen Stevenson as "a man with a gentle soul." He would go out of his way to help people. "Even if you were stuck in Toronto, he would drive down and pick you up," Mrs. MacInnis said.

Mr. Baker is a descendant of the original Baker family and lived at the Baker farm on Hwy. 48 near Bloomington Road.

Mr. Baker leaves his sister Elaine Fisher and niece and nephew Elizabeth and John Fisher.
