Stay up-to-date election day

If you're looking for up-to-the-minute coverage of Thursday's provincial election, go to yorkregion.com

The official website of the York Region Newspaper Group will provide hourly updates of stories and photographs starting at noon election day.

Our team of journalists will be out across the region, reporting from the five York Region ridings: Markham, Oak Ridges, Thornhill, Vaughan-King, Aurora and York North.

As soon as the polls close at 8 p.m., we'll be bringing you regular updates of results, anecdotes from the campaign trail, voter reaction and photos.

There's an election message board that lets you share your opinions or just vent. You can also take our election day opinion survey.

And if you still haven't decided who is getting your vote, we'll have an archive of stories about the big issues of the campaign.

So be sure to point your browser to yorkregion.com on election day.

Our Prescription for Change

October 2nd you will be making an important decision for Oak Ridges and Ontario. The choices are clear.

- Our children need the best public education we can provide.
- We need a health care system that provides the best service without long waiting lists.
- Clean drinking water and safe food are not negotiable.
- Improved services to seniors allowing them to live with dignity and respect.
- A Liberal government will act responsibly with a balanced approach.
