BONELESS SIRLOIN STEAKS

These are either Grade AAA or Canada Prime Sirloin is not the most tender cut, but it certainly has a following — especially for the flavour.

There is not an endless supply so when they're gone, they're gone!

PLANNING DESSERT?

We'll be doing a lot of Thanksgiving baking for next week. This is a heads-up of what will be available — it would be best to order what you'd like because the availability, despite our best efforts, will be tight.

In pies we'll have pumpkin of course, but also pecan, lemon meringue, key lime and an assortment of fruit pies.

In cheesecakes we'll have brandied-cranberry (extra good), caramel-pecan crunch, caramel apple, lemon, pumpkin and lastly, raspberry white-chocolate.

In cakes and flans, all decorated with Thanksgiving in mind, will be chocolate cakes & mousse, cranapple flans (always good), cranberry buttermilk flans and cranberry-orange cheesecakes, which actually belong in the section above, but I'm not rewriting this. Also, we'll have pumpkin tarts with whipped cream, cranberry buttermilk (amazing), caramel-apple scones, cranberry scones and last but not least, a whole bunch of Thanksgiving cookies — and although you probably know this already, Jaana and her girls (and one guy) make all this stuff right here — from scratch.

That's amazing!

SOMETHING NEW!

I quote Jaana, who's our baker par excellence, "I never wanted to make cheesecakes with nuts because I thought people wouldn't like a crunchy surprise in a smooth cheesecake. Then one day Cindy (also a great baker) was roasting pecans in the oven with maple syrup, brown sugar, butter, cinnamon and nutmeg, and I thought maybe I was wrong (this must be a misprint), and these nuts would be perfect with caramel in a cheesecake." So look out for the crunchy surprise in our new creation, caramel-pecan-crunch cheesecakes!

FREE-RANGE TURKEYS

For the past number of years, whenever turkey time came, we simply reached into our cupboard and pulled out our "turkeys are US" ad, dusted it off and ran it a few times in the Economist.

Our customers had become so used to it that when they saw it, they didn't read it anymore. They just saw the picture of turkey Al and Mike the Knife and phoned for a turkey.

Alas, things change, and so does our clientele. With so many new people who have moved into our area, our turkey story needs to be retold. We sell only free-range turkeys — they run loose and eat what they want (lots of grain). Add to this a gentler defeathering process which leaves more of the natural flavour (and the odd feather) with the turkey and you'll have a turkey that exceeds your expectations — unless, of course, you've dined on one of ours before. Our turkeys are very moist (without the artificial help that a Butterball receives), very tender and flavourful and they cook a little quicker than most.

So, order one of our old-fashioned turkeys. They range in size from 15-20 lb. and from 22-26 lbs.

Ready to roast, they're 2.79 LB.

CRANBERRY STUFF

Not only will we have those amazing cranberry candles back, we'll have fresh Ontario cranberries, pure cranberry juice (good for you) and we'll have the loons — and other birds in all sizes. This shipment should be arriving on Thursday.

GOURDS

These are the things to have if you're doing a bit of Autumn decorating or making an attractive Fall table arrangement. They come in the most interesting shapes, colours and sizes!

Mix or match.

GOING TO THE FAIR?

You can't have fun on an empty stomach! Visit the Rotary Club booth for our peameal bacon, our big burgers, and Oktoberfest sausages made by yours truly.

Grab a big bite, then go and have some fun.

NOW AVAILABLE

We'll have cut squash and cut turnip available for this week and next. 1.99 LB.

PUMPKIN LOAVES

These are the banana bread sized loaves but without the bananas and WITH seasoned pumpkin instead. They're really good! 1/3 OFF THIS WEEK
Reg. $3.99 ea.

... AND WHAT ELSE IS BAKING THIS WEEK?

It's a great time of the year for pears. In the produce area we have some really nice Flemish pears — which are, according to my friend Joe Pugliese, a long-time produce guy — the best eating pears at the market. In the bakery this week, we'll be using Bartlett pears to produce the following goodies:

PEAR-GINGER-TOASTED ALMOND SCONES — the latest in a big family of amazing scones. $1.29 ea.

PEAR FLANS — it's a shortbread flan brushed with dark chocolate, halved pears, almond-cinnamon custard and sliced almonds. $1.79 ea.

PEAR COFFEE CAKE — made with pears, caramel and toasted pecans baked in a coffee cake. $0.99 ea.

CHOCOLATE CHEESECAKE — are you ready for this? with a layer of pears poached in spiced port & red wine and a layer of caramel — topped with chocolate ganache. $1.29 $2.09 ea.
