Ex-April Wine guitarist leading jam sessions

A founding member of the 1970s group April Wine brings his newly formed David Henman Band to The Earl of Whitchurch in Stouffville Thursday nights, beginning tonight.

"We specialize in music that people can dance to," Mr. Henman said.

Anyone who wants to join in the jam session is welcome to do so.

Band members are Rick Gunn and David Henman on guitar, Ron Stark on bass and Bruce Morrison on drums. All four band members sing.

April Wine had several hits from 1969 to 1973, including Fast Train, Bad Side of the Moon and Drop Your Guns.

The Thursday night jam sessions begin at 8 p.m. at The Earl of Whitchurch, 6204 Main St.
