Spartan runners fourth at regional finals

The Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans cross-country senior boys and girls' entries ran off with fourth-place efforts at the recent York Region Athletic Association championships at Boyd Conservation Area in Woodbridge.

The Spartans girls' entry, which ran a five-kilometre course, was comprised of Cassie Sparks, Allison Lloyd, Alana Lloyd, Amber Muir and Jaclyn Mowat. The Spartans boys' team, which negotiated a 7.8-km course, included Brian Lock, Tim Dunham, Kevin Hadaway and Jan Viljoen. In individual competition,

Simon Kennedy, a Grade 9 student, finished 16th in the midget boys' 5-km event. Stouffville failed to qualify runners for the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations championships starting today in Exeter. The top two teams earned berths along with the top three individuals who aren't on teams that qualified.
