Jingle all the way to an exciting Christmas home

handful of exterior-use lights, threading the ends through the hole. Leave a gap of about a foot and repeat with the next bag, joining all the lights together. Plug in with an exterior-use extension cord and stand back to enjoy the effect.

Jingle all the way. For this glittery idea use strips of mirror, tied onto an embroidery hoop, or even a metal coat hanger for the sweet sound of Christmas. Sand the edges to avoid cuts, then hang in the trees to enjoy the icy glimmer of the mirror and the delicate sound of the chimes.

a) Whisk
b) Lawnmower
c) Camera
d) Chainsaw
- When is the best time to serve dessert?
a) After you've served your guests an eight-course meal so they'll be stuffed and there's more dessert for you.
b) Any time is dessert time!
c) During the Survivor finale as you watch all the contestants starve.
- What is a cake comb featured on page 22 of Decadent Desserts?
a) It's a decorating tool that makes wavy lines in icing on a cake.
b) It's the second cousin to the honeycomb.
c) It gives your cake a perm before a big night out.
- Which ho-to instructions appear in Decadent Desserts?
a) How to oil and lube your car with chocolate sauce.
b) How to decorate a cake with caramelized sugar.
c) How to create stained glass for your oven window.
- Where can you find the ever-popular recipe for Molton Chocolate Cake?
a) Inside Decadent Desserts by Jean Pare.
b) In the land of nuts & honey.
c) On top of Old Smoky all covered in chocolate.
