ty, Mr. Chambers was the founding president of the chamber in the early 1980s. He was also one of the founding members of the downtown Stouffville Business Improvement Area.

"Jack always worked towards the improvement of the downtown," said business associate and friend Graydon Card. "Jack Chambers was there for the town when it was needed. He was a guy that was larger than life."

Mr. Chambers was especially generous to service groups in Whitchurch-Stouffville, fellow BIA board member David Barthau said. "He was a great guy," Mr. Barthau said. "Everybody knew him. He worked hard and he was good to the community."

JACK CHAMBERS: First president of Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce owned Stouffville IGA.

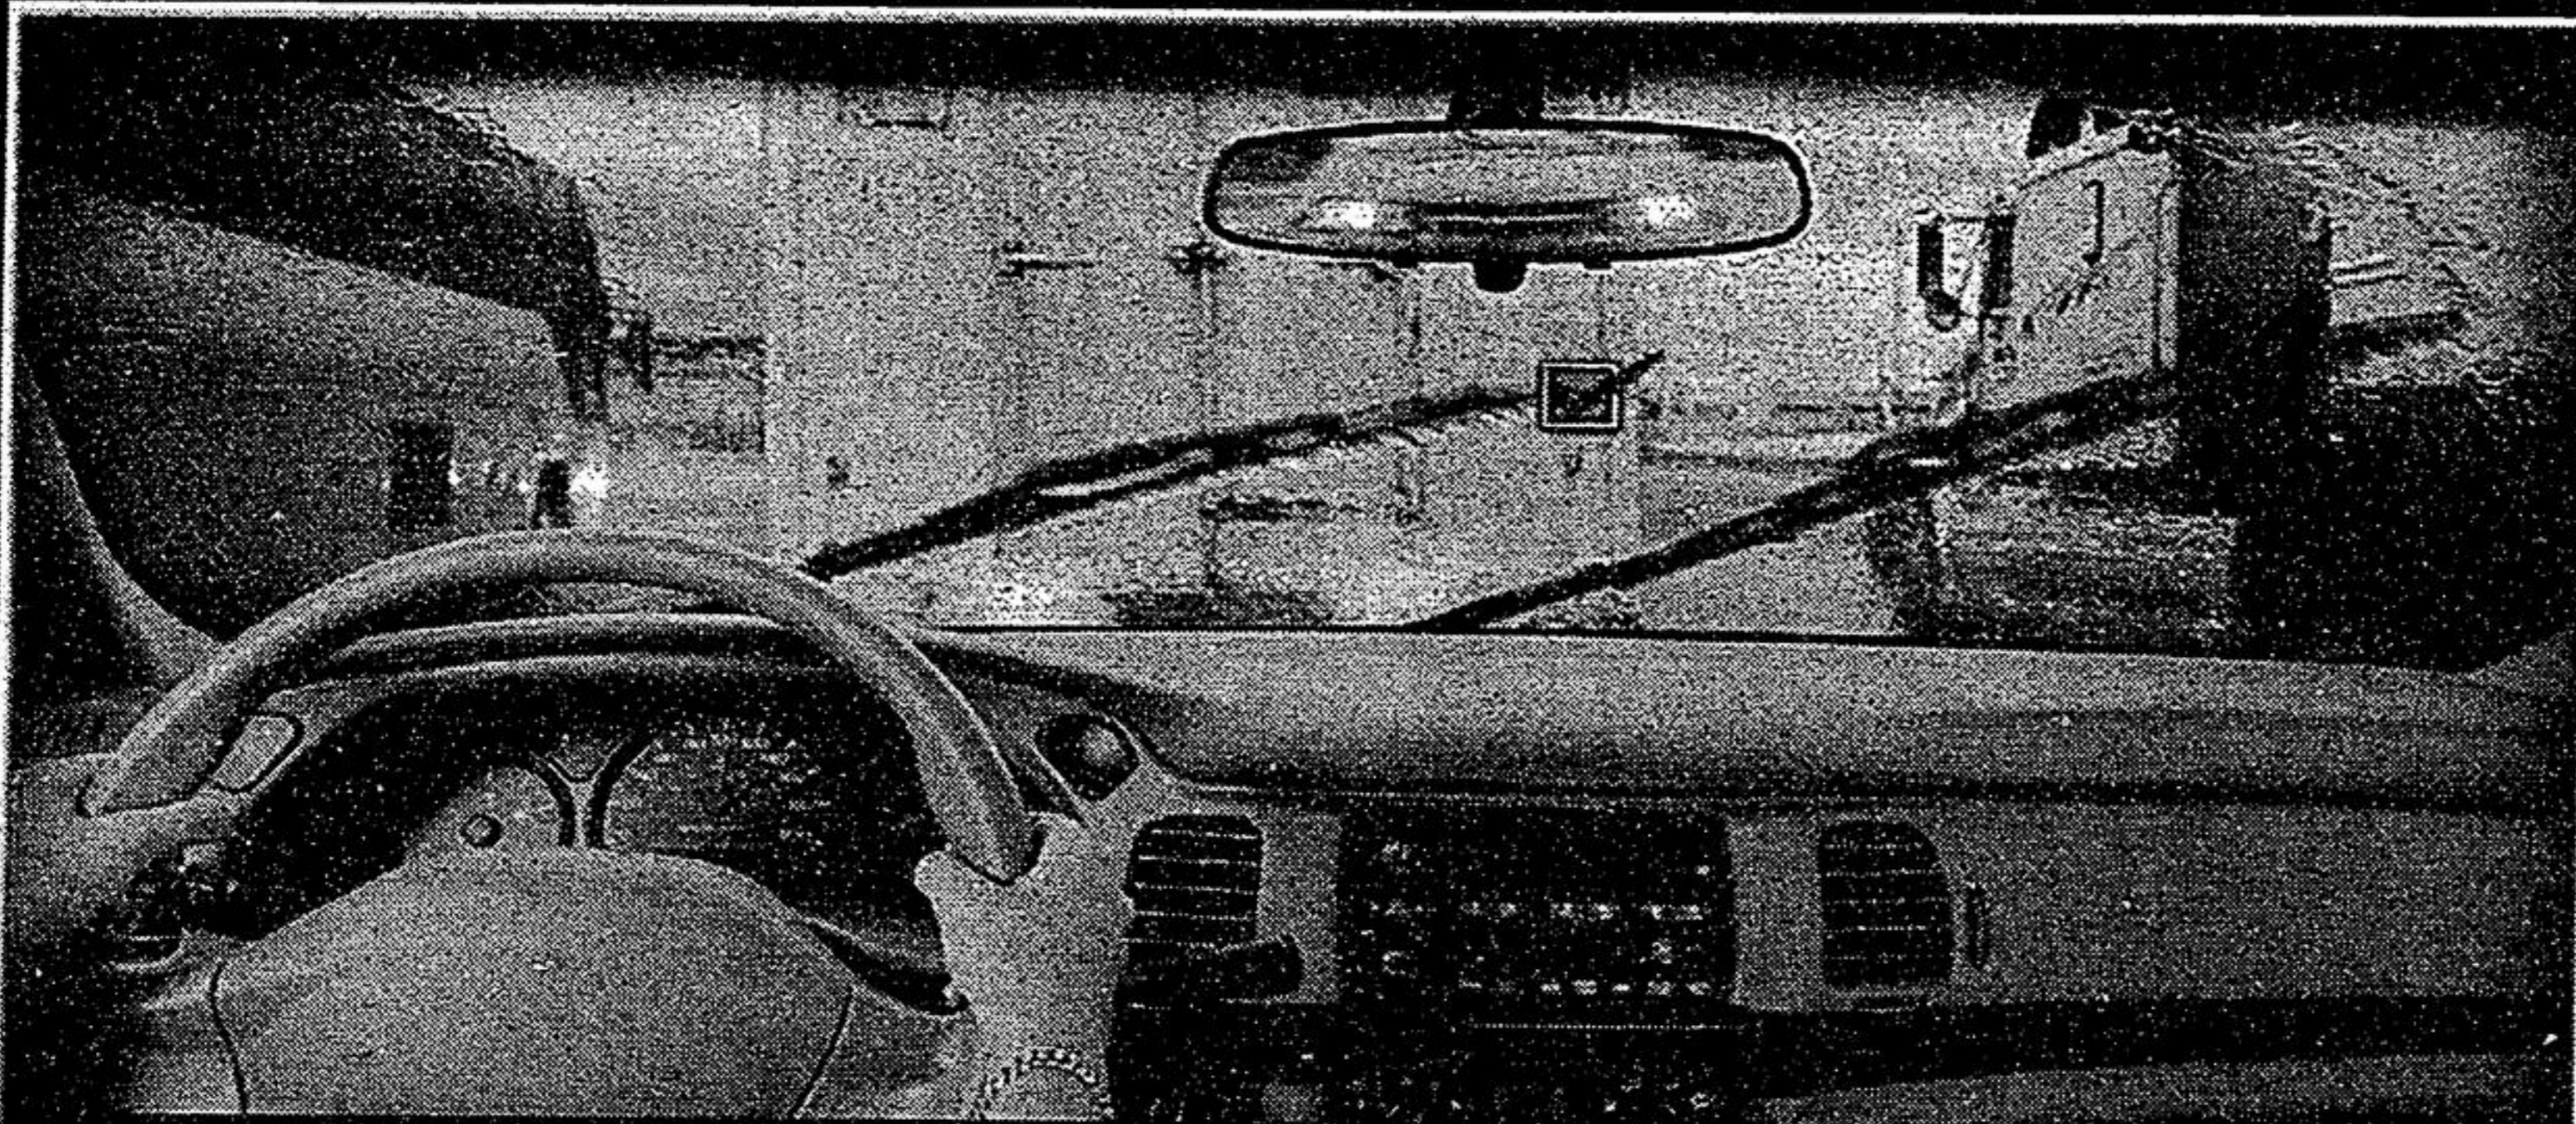

Mr. Chambers owned and operated the downtown IGA for about 20 years. The business was sold in the early 1990s. At that time, Mr. Chambers and his wife Mary retired and moved to their cottage near Midland.

In keeping with the family wishes, cremation has taken place. A memorial service was held at Dunford United Church Friday.

Mr. Chambers is survived by his wife, his children Steven, Julia and Donna, son-in-law Garry Leggatt and five grandchildren.
