

OUR SHEPHERD'S PIE

From our frozen section this week, we're featuring our Shepherd's Pie, which to some is comfort food at it's finest. We use sautéed Spanish Onion, our medium ground chuck and freshly peeled Idaho or P.E.I. potatoes — mashed. You just need to warm it.

SIRLOIN STEAK ROASTS

We've got a good supply of these roasts for this week's dinner. They should not be confused with sirloin tip roasts — these are infinitely more tender and flavourful. They'll be nicely trimmed and tied from 2 lb to 7 lb size. Have a great dinner!

AMAZING SHORTBREADS!

Not only do we make amazing shortbreads, we make an amazing variety, as well. Best to try them all so you'll know your favourite. The customer choice last year was Toasted Pecan Caramel.

— ALSO —

We'll have numerous varieties of Christmas sugar cookies as well.

— AND —

Mincemeat tarts, including cranberry mincemeat, are now available.

OUR TOURTIERES

These are now available, if you've been patiently waiting for one. We have them in a 9" size and we get great reviews on them.

THE BIG GAME

I'm sure most of you have read bits and pieces about this — but this is the full story. It's a celebration of 50 years of Unionville Minor Hockey.

Who's Playing?

The opposing team is made of former NHL greats including Guy Lafleur, Gilbert Perreault, Dan Daoust, Moose Dupont, Jim Dorey, Benoit Brunel, Gaston Ginsras, Stephane Richer, Richard Sevigny and others.

To humble these boys, we'll be fielding three different teams of local stars (one team each period) including THE VILLAGE GROCER CHAMPS who won the men's league last year.

Will it be fun? You bet — and there'll be prizes.

Where: It's at Centennial Arena on Nov. 28th at 7:00 p.m.

All U.M.H.A. players will receive free admission, all others will be $10.00, profits go to the Markham-Stouffville Hospital.

FESTIVE ARRANGEMENTS

We have received another shipment of our mixed evergreen doorstep urns. These were sold out early, but never despair, more have arrived.

MINESTRONE SOUP

I used to think that the literal translation of "Minestrone" from Italian to English meant "everything but, and sometimes including the kitchen sink." It's like you open your fridge and start creating. That thought returns to me as I'm watching this soup being made. It has a lot of different ingredients — but they all lend a hand in the flavour — it's really delicious — and it's low fat, for sure.

GIFT BASKETS

If you are new to our store, it won't take you long to realize that we're in the basket business. Although I've never really counted them, there must be thousands to choose from. During the Festive Season we make them up with food goodies to fit any budget or taste (including wine, if you'd like). You can pick what you'd like and we'll make it up as well — or it can be boxed — as you wish! See Robert or Evan if you have a special request. We offer good value.

SPANISH CLEMENTINES

We've got a good supply of Spanish Clementines this week. They're the larger size fruit (20's) — they're full of juice, NOT full of seeds (no seeds at all in the ones I tried), and they're fresh! The supply is presently quite good, and so is the price this week. Incidentally, do you know the origin of the name Clementine? Winston Churchill coined the phrase on one of his oft-taken sojourns to Morocco. He found the fruit so sweet, it reminded him of his wife, Clementine — just thought you might want to know.
